FRACTION NUMBER STORIES -1

Q1. Jane bought 8 ⅚ inches of ribbon to decorate her house for her birthday party. She used 3 ⅙ inches of the ribbon. What was the remaining length of the ribbon?

Q2. In an oil refinery, 21 ⅛ litres of oil was poured into a container on Monday, 34 ⅝ litres of oil was poured on Tuesday and 42 ⅛ litres of oil was poured on Wednesday. What was total amount of oil in the container on Wednesday?

Q3. The length of a log of wood was 8 ⅔ meters.   A woodcutter cut the log of wood at 2 ⅓ meters to sell to the furniture industry. How long is the log of wood now?

Q4. My father drove to Shimla for our summer vacation. We covered 3 ⅛ km in 1 hour. After taking a tea break we again drove 5⅝ km. What was the total distance covered by us?